

An Update from Tin Can Bay Houseboats - we remain OPEN

Firstly, how are you doing?

We don't enjoy being one more business talking about this topic, but we feel it is important. Our priority is always to ensure the health and safety of our valued clients.

As the COVID19 (Coronavirus) situation develops, we are closely monitoring its progress and are implementing measures to minimise the risk of transmission.

Tin Can Bay Houseboats remain open for business and we thank you for your continued support for our small business whilst we navigate through this time. Shall anything change, we will be advising all clients.

Our goal is to ensure that we all remain in a safe, relaxing and healthy environment.

We are doing everything we can to uphold our high standards to maintain a safe environment and have reviewed our already strict cleaning processes to include additional precautionary measures.

Here's what we're doing:

- We are following the health guidelines advised by Australian Government Agencies and the World Health Organisation.
- We are exercising additional preventative measures which include but are not limited to: sanitising and disinfecting throughout the boats before and after each group.
- We have concentrated our cleaning procedures in all high touch areas with a particular focus on hand railings, door handles, bathrooms, kitchen areas and driving areas.
- Additional disinfectant cleaning products will be placed in all boats for visitors to use, as soon as possible.
- Maximum of 5 people per boat, all from the same household (to comply with latest government guidelines).

We would ask that you respect quarantine periods imposed by the government and if you are feeling unwell please take care of yourself and consider others in the community.

Our houseboats are a wonderful relaxing isolation place and an amazing alternative to unwind and unplug from the challenging times we are all going through. We have some availability over the upcoming months so please contact us to book your next Queensland holiday, in the safety of your own houseboat.

We thank you for your cooperation and hope to see you soon.

Warm Regards,
Margot Keeley
